

Gulf States Maritime Association Daily Conditions Report October 10, 2011

Port of Mobile, Alabama

Special Notices and Reminders

- General: None
- Coast Guard: Current MARSEC Level = Level 1 for normal maritime purposes.
Current Hurricane Port Condition = None
- Pilots: Reported no problems at this time.

Alabama State Port Authority

To view the website of the Alabama State Port Authority, please click here.

Harbormaster: The hopper dredge COLUMBIA is working in the main channel and the dredge INGENUITY is working near the state docks in the Mobile River.

National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA)

Observations for Mobile Bay PORTS 2011-10-10 09:33:25 CDT

Water levels are steady at all three reporting stations, with readings between 0.9 and 1.2 feet.

Currents are flooding at Mobile State Dock Pier E, and slack at Mobile Container Terminal. Speeds are between 0.1 and 0.3 knots.

Reported winds are generally from the northeast, between 11 and 14 knots with gusts to 15 knots.

Reported air temperatures are in the low to mid 70s °F, and reported water temperatures are within the 70s °F.

Barometric pressure is rising at all four reporting stations, with readings between 1014.7 and 1015.2 mb.

To view NOAA PORTS-Mobile Bay, please click here.

Links

Marine Weather Forecast

Upcoming ILA Holidays

Mobile	November 11, 2011 (Veteran's Day)
--------	-----------------------------------